

I was raised in Byron Bay NSW in the 80's in the times when only the locals new about this place. I grew up surfing and playing many sports including Rugby League, Soccer, Netball, Volleyball and Ballet. My first job out of school was working at a local corner store before going to work for a local doctor's surgery as a receptionist.

I married at 20 and travelled around Australia before where I fell in love with Perth and lived for 7 years before returning to Queensland in 2004.

My working career has taken many turns from working in Retail, Nursing and most recently in Special Education. I never imagined that my career choices and personal experiences would set me up with the tools to raise my two beautiful Neuro-diverse children.

My passion is helping others and being a voice for those who cannot use theirs. I have a lifetime of experience advocating for disability rights and am still a strong advocate today.
